

Le-Anne Grimshaw

Le-Anne has been a passionate educator and advocate for ultrasound over the last 30 years.

She was honoured to be ASUMs 2018 Australasian Sonographer of the Year and was awarded Fellowship of the ASA in 2019.

Last year she was extremely proud to receive the award of AJUMs Article of the year.

Her enthusiasm for musculoskeletal ultrasound is contagious and she is constantly pushing the boundaries of the application of ultrasound in this area.

As an ASUM Honorary Fellow, Le-Anne will be a proud ambassador and continue to contribute to this remarkable profession.
